Parents and guardians living in the household must provide written proof of income from the previous month. Below are acceptable forms of income for proof:

- If you qualify for SNAP, TANF, or Medicaid, the confirmation paperwork for that program must show your child's name and effective dates.

Other acceptable forms of documentation are listed below.

The documents should contain the following:

- Name of the person standing in parental relation
 - Amount of income
 - Date received (a pay stub with no date would be insufficient)
 - Frequency of income earned (weekly, biweekly, monthly or annually)
- Acceptable documentation for earnings (wages and salary) include:
 - Current paycheck stub
 - Notarized letter from employer stating gross wages paid and frequency
 - Unemployment, Worker's Compensation, or Disability payment stub
 - Acceptable documentation for self-employment income includes:
 - Business or farming documents, such as ledger books or self-issued paycheck stub
 - Last year's tax return (Self-employment only)
 - Acceptable documentation for cash income is a notarized letter from the employer stating wages paid and frequency.
